

7th Floor Event Space

Our premiere event space is located on our 7th floor, and offers floor to ceiling, stunning views of Columbus Circle and Central Park. The space is equipped with audio-visual capabilities and private bathrooms. The all white interior provides a versatile room that can hold over 150 guests for a cocktail reception, 85 for a seated dinner, or 120 for theater style seating.

The Theatre at MAD

With seating for 143 people, MAD's Theatre provides a unique space for private screenings, press conferences, corporate seminars and presentations, performances and rehearsals. The following presentation options are available: Blu-Ray and DVD playback, 35mm projection with Dolby surround sound, wired and wireless microphones, various laptop and auxiliary inputs, and wireless internet access. The theatre lobby is also available for private events.

Building Facade

The 54,000-square-foot building with a ceramic and glass-paneled facade is available for video projections/ installation on the building's exterior. Artistic projections will have the ability to reach tens of thousands of New Yorkers and tourists every day in the epicenter of the city. In December 2010, the Museum's facade served as a 10-story screen for Parker Pens' 3-D video installation Write Big.

Barbara Tober Grand Atrium

On our ground level is the Barbara Tober Grand Atrium. This light-filled space is enclosed by glass, featuring the building's iconic "lollipop" windows, and a grand suspended stair case. The Atrium can accommodate 110 for cocktail or breakfast receptions. h

Gallery Access

When the Museum is open to the public, gallery access is included with all rentals. After Museum hours, gallery access can be arranged for a rental fee. Docent tours are also available for an additional charge.
